[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

2. Recovery of property from transferee. A partnership may recover partnership property from a transferee only if the partnership proves that execution of the instrument of initial transfer did not bind the partnership under section 1031 and:

A. As to a subsequent transferee who gave value for property transferred under subsection 1, paragraph A or B, proves that the subsequent transferee knew or had received a notification that the person who executed the instrument of initial transfer lacked authority to bind the partnership; or [PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

B. As to a transferee who gave value for property transferred under subsection 1, paragraph C, proves that the transferee knew or had received a notification that the property was partnership property and that the person who executed the instrument of initial transfer lacked authority to bind the partnership. [PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

3. No recovery. A partnership may not recover partnership property from a subsequent transferee if the partnership would not have been entitled to recover the property, under subsection 2, from any earlier transferee of the property.

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

4. All partners' interests in one person. If a person holds all of the partners' interests in the partnership, all of the partnership property vests in that person. The person may execute a document in the name of the partnership to evidence vesting of the property in that person and may file or record the document.

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

SECTION HISTORY

PL 2005, c. 543, §A2 (NEW).

§1033. Partnership liable for partner's actionable conduct

1. Partnership liable for loss, injury or penalty. A partnership is liable for loss or injury caused to a person, or for a penalty incurred, as a result of a wrongful act or omission, or other actionable conduct, of a partner acting in the ordinary course of business of the partnership or with authority of the partnership.

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

2. Partnership liable for misapplication. SECTION HISTORY

PL 2005, c. 543, §A2 (NEW).

§1034. Partner's liability

1. Jointly and severally liable. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2 and 3, all partners are liable jointly and severally for all obligations of the partnership unless otherwise agreed by the claimant or provided by law.

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

2. Not personally liable for obligation prior to admission. A person admitted as a partner into an existing partnership is not personally liable for any partnership obligation incurred before the person's admission as a partner.

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

3. Obligation incurred while limited liability partnership. An obligation of a partnership incurred while the partnership is a limited liability partnership, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, is solely the obligation of the partnership. A partner is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, for such an obligation solely by reason of being or so acting as a partner. This subsection applies notwithstanding anything inconsistent in the partnership agreement that existed immediately before the vote required to become a limited liability partnership under section 821, subsection 2.

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

4. Exceptions to limited liability of shareholders. The exceptions under common law to a limited liability of shareholders of a business corporation organized under the Maine Business Corporation Act and shareholders of a professional corporation organized under the Maine Professional Service Corporation Act apply to the limited liability of partners in a professional limited liability partnership. [PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

5. Exception for certain obligations. With regard to certain obligations incurred prior to the effective date of this chapter, the following provisions apply:

A. To the extent any obligations of a partnership were incurred prior to the effective date of this chapter and while the partnership was a limited liability partnership, the limitation on liability of a partner is governed exclusively by paragraph B and the provisions of subsection 3 do not apply. [PL 2007, c. 231, §35 (NEW); PL 2007, c. 231, §40 (AFF).]

B. A partner in a limited liability partnership is not liable directly or indirectly, including by way of indemnification, contribution, assessment or otherwise, for debts, obligations and liabilities however chargeable to the partnership or to another partner or partners, whether in tort, contract or otherwise, arising from omissions, negligence, wrongful acts, misconduct or malpractice committed by another partner, employee, agent or representative of the partnership in the course of the partnership business while the partnership is a limited liability partnership. [PL 2007, c. 231, §35 (NEW); PL 2007, c. 231, §40 (AFF).]

C. For purposes of defining an obligation to which paragraph B applies, the term of an obligation is the original term of the obligation plus, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the obligor partnership and the obligee, any period as to which the obligor partnership has an option to unilaterally renew or extend the term of such obligation. [PL 2007, c. 231, §35 (NEW); PL 2007, c. 231, §40 (AFF).]

[PL 2007, c. 231, §35 (NEW); PL 2007, c. 231, §40 (AFF).]

§1035. Actions by and against partnership and partners

1. Sue and be sued. A partnership may sue and be sued in the name of the partnership. [PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

2. Action against partnership and partners. An action may be brought against the partnership and, to the extent not inconsistent with section 1034, any or all of the partners in the same action or in separate actions.

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

3. Judgment against partnership; partner. A judgment against a partnership is not by itself a judgment against a partner. A judgment against a partnership may not be satisfied from a partner's assets unless there is also a judgment against the partner.

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

4. Execution against assets of partner. A judgment creditor of a partner may not levy execution against the assets of the partner to satisfy a judgment based on a claim against the partnership unless the partner is personally liable for the claim under section 1034 and:

A. A judgment based on the same claim has been obtained against the partnership and a writ of execution on the judgment has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part; [PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

B. The partnership is a debtor in bankruptcy; [PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

C. The partner has agreed that the creditor need not exhaust partnership assets; [PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

D. A court grants permission to the judgment creditor to levy execution against the assets of a partner based on a finding that partnership assets subject to execution are clearly insufficient to satisfy the judgment, that exhaustion of partnership assets is excessively burdensome or that the grant of permission is an appropriate exercise of the court's equitable powers; or [PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

E. Liability is imposed on the partner by law or contract independent of the existence of the partnership. [PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

5. Application to partnership liability or obligation. This section applies to any partnership liability or obligation resulting from a representation by a partner or purported partner under section 1036.

§1036. Liability of purported partner

1. Liability of purported partner. If a person, by words or conduct, purports to be a partner, or consents to being represented by another as a partner, in a partnership or with one or more persons not partners, the purported partner is liable to a person to whom the representation is made, if that person, relying on the representation, enters into a transaction with the actual or purported partnership. If the representation, either by the purported partner or by a person with the purported partner's consent, is made in a public manner, the purported partner is liable to a person who relies upon the purported partnership even if the purported partner is not aware of being held out as a partner to the claimant. If partnership liability results, the purported partner is liable with respect to that liability as if the purported partner were a partner. If no partnership liability results, the purported partner is liable with respect to that liability jointly and severally with any other person consenting to the representation.

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

2. Purported partner as agent. If a person is thus represented to be a partner in an existing partnership, or with one or more persons not partners, the purported partner is an agent of persons consenting to the representation to bind them to the same extent and in the same manner as if the purported partner were a partner, with respect to persons who enter into transactions in reliance upon the representation. If all of the partners of the existing partnership consent to the representation, a partnership act or obligation results. If fewer than all of the partners of the existing partnership consent to the representation, the person acting and the partners consenting to the representation are jointly and severally liable.

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

3. Liability of dissociated partner. A person does not continue to be liable as a partner merely because of a failure to file a statement of dissociation.

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

4. Nonpartners not liable as partners. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 1 and 2, persons who are not partners as to each other are not liable as partners to other persons.

6. Management and conduct of business. Each partner has equal rights in the management and conduct of the partnership business.

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

2. Access to books and records. A partnership shall provide partners and their agents and attorneys access to its books and records. It shall provide former partners and their agents and attorneys access to books and records pertaining to the period during which they were partners. The right of access provides the opportunity to inspect and copy books and records during ordinary business hours. [PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

6. Loan to and business with partnership. A partner may lend money to and transact other business with the partnership, and as to each loan or transaction the rights and obligations of the partner are the same as those of a person who is not a partner, subject to other applicable law.

- A. Is permissible; [PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]
- B. Does not by itself cause the partner's dissociation or a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business; and [PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]
- C. Does not, as against the other partners or the partnership, entitle the transferee, during the continuance of the partnership, to participate in the management or conduct of the partnership business, to require access to information concerning partnership transactions or to inspect or copy the partnership books or records. [PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

1. Purchase of interest if no dissolution. If a partner is dissociated from a partnership without resulting in a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business under section 1081, the partnership shall cause the dissociated partner's interest in the partnership to be purchased for a buyout price determined pursuant to subsection 2.

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

2. Buyout price. The buyout price of a dissociated partner's interest is the amount that would have been distributable to the dissociating partner under section 1087, subsection 2 if, on the date of dissociation, the assets of the partnership were sold at a price equal to the greater of the liquidation value or the value based on a sale of the entire business as a going concern without the dissociated partner and the partnership were wound up as of that date. Interest must be paid from the date of dissociation to the date of payment.

[PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

3. Damages for wrongful dissociation; interest. Damages for wrongful dissociation under section 1062, subsection 2, and all other amounts owing, whether or not presently due, from the dissociated partner to the partnership, must be offset against the buyout price. [PL 2005, c. 543, Pt. A, §2 (NEW).]

4. Indemnification. A partnership shall indemnify a dissociated partner whose interest is being purchased against all partnership liabilities, whether incurred before or after the dissociation, except liabilities incurred by an act of the dissociated partner under section 1072.

6. Deferred payment. If a deferred payment is authorized under subsection 8, the partnership may tender a written offer to pay the amount it estimates to be the buyout price and accrued interest, reduced by any offsets under subsection 3, stating the time of payment, the amount and type of security for payment and the other terms and conditions of the obligation.

A deferred payment must be adequately secured and bear interest.

The action must be commenced within 120 days after the partnership has tendered payment or an offer to pay or within one year after written demand for payment if no payment or offer to pay is tendered. The court shall determine the buyout price of the dissociated partner's interest, any offset due under subsection 3, and accrued interest, and enter judgment for any additional payment or refund.
